order to bring it up anywhere near strength. And it is a general statement, about 50% of strength now. And I would presume that these two bills probably would be used as a mechanics of servicing an attempt in order to bring about for your consideration the desirability of making some offer. Beyond what they can not make in order to encourage people to join the National Guard. So I asked that the two bills be introduced.

PRESIDENT: Is there any need for further discussion of the motion? The question is shall the rules be suspended and the bills introduced.

CLERK: Two bills, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is shall the rules be suspended and the two bills introduced. All those in favor will vote aye, all those opposed will vote no. Voting on a suspension of the rules on the introduction of two bills sponsored by the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee, as explained by Senator Carpenter. That motion does still take 30 votes.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I think there was on your desk yesterday a letter from the National Guard in respect with what I've just indicated.

PRESIDENT: Have you all voted. The clerk will record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, Mr. President to suspend the rules.

PRESIDENT: All right. The rules are suspended. The bill is introduced.

CLERK: Legislative Bill 982 (read) 983 (read)

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Ready for the consideration then for the bills on Select File. Senator Cavanaugh we are ready for the bills on Select File.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President, I move the adoption to E & R amendments to LB 438.

PRESIDENT: I'm sorry, Senator Cavanaugh, I was distracted.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move the adoption of amendments to LB 438.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is shall the amendments be adopted to LB 438 on Select File. All those in favor of the motion say aye, those opposed say no.

CLERK: O.K. Mr. President, there is pending a motion to add the emergency clause, but that can't be done with advancing the bill and returning it.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Do you want to move to advancement first. Move to advance LB 438 as amended.

PRESIDENT: The motion is made to advance the bill. All those in favor of advancing the bill as amended say aye, those opposed say no. So ordered. The bill is advanced.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move to the adoption of E & R amendments' to LB 17.
